

NCO Season Underway

by Carolyn Naaman
Community contributor

The 2013-2014 concert season for the Newtown Chamber Orchestra will include three performances under the direction of Russell W. Hoffman. On Oct. 13, the orchestra kicked off the season with “Autumn Strings,” featuring violinist Mialtin Zhezha. The season will include two other performances: “Soloists on Stage” on Jan. 19, 2014, and “A Night at the Opera & More,” which will take place on March 30, 2014. Tickets cost $25 for adults, $20 for seniors, and students and Children are free. To purchase tickets or for more information, visit newtownchamberorchestra.org.

Violinist Mialtin Zhezha was part of the NCO's season opener performance.

Photo courtesy of Carolyn Naaman